The bird is flying.
The man is driving the car.
The man is clapping.
The girl is blowing the candles.

The boy turned off the light.

Father is knocking at the door.
The boy is cutting the paper.

The boy can swim.

The boy is pulling the car.
The baby is eating pear.
The boy is climbing the fence.
The boy is pushing the box.
The girl is washing up the plates.
The girl is sitting on the chair.
The boy has blue trousers.
The uncles are building the house.

The boy likes dancing.

The children are playing hide-and-seek.
Beni is splashing in the bath.

Father is drinking milk.

Beni is eating cake.
Father goes to work by bus.

The children are drawing in the yard.

Mother is playing the guitar and singing.
Beni is looking out of the window.
The water flows from the tap.
Mother goes shopping.
The children are feeding the sheeps.

Beni has eaten ice and his face is stained.

It is dark in the night.
The children are feeding the sheep.

Beni has eaten ice and his face is stained.

It is dark in the night.
I warm up the lunch, because it has got cold in the fridge.
If it is dark, we turn on the light.
Baby Benedek is special, because he goes sitting.
Like to play hide-and-seek?

Shall we build a train, or would you...
We don't watch TV, but we rather listen to music.
In the evening Beni eats much, one yoghurt is not enough for him.
Mother is thirsty, therefore she drinks a glass of tea.
In the morning we draw up the shutter; in order that the sun shines into the room.

ragged fulltext as normally
When it is raining, we don't take a walk.
Therefore, Grandmother goes home, and we wave to her.
If in winter it is snowing much, we can go sledging.
mother sings for him

Beri listens to with pleasure; if
In wind keep bending not only the trees,
but the bushes as well.
don't pick its leaf!
You can catch the flower, but
Zsófi is younger than Beni, because she was born later.
Uncle Harun is cheerful, and he likes children.
Give me the car, which has siren!
Where are your clothes, which has you worn yesterday?
become dry.

I take the clothes out of the washing-machine in order that they become dry.

Father works much, so he can play with Beni only in the evening.
fall down on you if you are clinging on it.

I'm afraid, that the flower-stand will